Itinerary Notes

Please check that the name on your itinerary matches your passport name exactly. You may not be able to travel if there is a difference.

Please ensure that your passport is valid for at least six months after your return and that you hold all necessary visas. If you need to apply for a visa, please allow adequate time to do this before travel.

All times shown are local and it is recommended that you reconfirm all flights directly with your airline at least 72 hours before departure.

Baggage allowances vary. Please check with your airline what you are entitled to take if details are not on your details.

There are updated rules for taking liquids through UK airport security. For full details, please visit www.dft.gov.uk/airportsecurity.

We strongly advise that you take adequate travel insurance for your trip. Please ask a travel consultant for details of the policies we offer. Professional medical advice should be sought for immunisation and medical requirements.

Changing Your Travel Dates

The information below sets out how you can request changes on the various types of ticket issued by STA Travel. Please refer to your receipt which shows if changes are permitted to the ticket you have purchased.

eTICKETS can be changed through the Travel Help section at www.statravel.co.uk which is open all year round and which guarantees a response to you within 24 hours. This service is also available to customers holding a GREEN CARD/PAPER ticket before leaving the UK or by contacting the airline direct after you have started to travel.

BLUE PAPER TICKETS can be changed through your nearest STA Travel branch, at one of our worldwide Travel Help office or online through the Travel Help section at www.statravel.co.uk, where you can also find details of your nearest worldwide Travel Help branch.

Help on the Road

Please continue to visit the Travel Help section on www.statravel.co.uk for information and general advice you may find useful whilst you are away.
